Thursday
night

Dearest Rivers,

Thanks for being
the sweetest thing in the world. The Candy and magazine
came and I was so glad to get both.

The Candy is so
fresh and wonderful -
we're eating it right now.

Am getting along
fine and can't believe that I will have been here a month Monday. I passed all the tests and made my typing speed Thursday so I'll be assigned to my job next Wednesday. There's nothing loads of people go every day as they close down the various branches of the War Dept. that have become unnecessary. Some say our appointments may be cut short but we haven't been told anything definite.

We're seeing everything there is to see while we're here and plan a trip to New York if we ever get a little money saved.

General D. H. Hall arrived yesterday for a three-day visit in Washington so we're counting on getting a look at him while he's here.

After seeing the Coast played out on you all - hope

the hot weather won't last much longer. It's been raining and cool enough for a coat here today.

Thanks again for the Candy, Rivers. ✓ I appreciate the little things that you do
like that more than you know. Write me again when you have time. Tell Annie I'll write her tomorrow since I'm writing you tonight. So much love,
Eve
